GRADUATE STUDENT AWARD APPLICATION FORM

WWW.ASMS.ORG

The ASMS Graduate Student Award recognizes graduate students whose academic achievements and current mass spectrometry research display a high level of excellence and distinction. Up to 10 awards of $1,000 each will be conferred annually. The Award is intended to support conference travel. Allowable expenses include transportation, lodging and meals. Receipts must be submitted after the conference. ASMS will reimburse up to $1,000. Only one applicant per research group may apply. Note: Attendance at a non-ASMS conference to present MS research in a topic area NOT covered at the ASMS conference is allowed in select cases.

The Awards for ASMS conference travel will be presented at the ASMS annual conference. Each award includes $1,000, free conference registration, and a matted certificate. Awards for non-ASMS conference travel include $1,000 and matted certificate.

Applicant must be an ASMS student member who is:

- in the 2nd year or more of a PhD degree program at the time of the conference;
- presenting author on an abstract submitted online to the conference.

Application should include the following:

1. This completed application;
2. Printout of the abstract submitted for presentation at the conference and on which the applicant is the presenting author;
3. Description of graduate research (no more than 2 pages including figures and illustrations).

Application items 1, 2, 3 should be arranged in order and assembled into a single PDF file. Email the file to office@asms.org for receipt by midnight Pacific Standard Time on January 15. No late or incomplete applications will be considered.
